General description:

Starting from the centre of Taggia, the trail climbs gently through the terraced olive groves to the beautiful village of Bussana Vecchia, rich in history. From its old centre, that is a visit worth, the itinerary descends to Sanremo, following the cycle and walking path in its last part.

Description of the itinerary:

From the medieval bridge of Taggia with sixteen arches, the itinerary heads up to the old centre, until the city gate S. Dalmazzo, from where it follows Via Bastioni to the monumental cloister of S. Domenico, where you can admire precious paintings of Ludovico Brea and Canavesio.

Descend to Palazzo San Benedetto, turn right on Via Ruffini and Via Lercari and again right on Via Salvatore Revelli and Via del Piano. Take Via Periane on the right until the patrol station. Follow the connection road to the highway for a few dozen meters and head up on the right on a concrete road between the greenhouses. Just before this road you will see the mule track Oliveto that leads to Castelletti first and Bussana Vecchia after.

Passing through the old centre, descend Strada Cascine Lunaire until the road Strada Armea. Leave this last road crossing Vicolo dei Moraglia and the provincial road Via Duca d'Aosta. Walk up Salita Poggio and descend on the other side of the ridge to Treponti in Sanremo. From here, follow the cycle and walking path "Parco Costiero" westwards for almost 4 km, until the monumental cemetery of Sanremo, starting point of the next leg.
